

ANROE Member Celebration!

The Alaska Natural Resource and Outdoor Education Association would like to invite you to an evening of thanks and celebration of its members.

Whether you were a member in the past, are one now, or would like to be involved, we would love to see you there!

This event will take place at the Alaska Public Lands Information Center. The event is FREE and a great way to familiarize yourself with EE activities and organizations in Fairbanks.

Thursday March 29th
4-6 p.m.

Enjoy pizza, snacks and drinks while chatting with fellow educators, parents and EE supporters.

6-8 p.m.

Join us as we celebrate EE efforts state-wide, and recognize former ANROE Board members.

Door prizes will be awarded, and local education resources will be available for your information.

Families are Welcome!

First Friday @ the Alaska Public Lands Information Center

Join us the first friday of each month for light refreshments and temporary exhibits that highlight the work of local artists.

Each event: 5:15 PM - 8:00 PM

March 2, 2007

Jed Williams and Shirley Odsather will exhibit their stone-fired clay and porcelain pottery. Fired to 2,000 F degrees, their stoneware can withstand tremendous temperature shock, i.e., cold to hot.

April 6, 2007

Jill Marshall, owner of Marshall Arts Studio, will exhibit her newest line of artistic greeting cards. Jill's art is beautifully executed, humorous and delightfully charming, often with Alaskan themes.

May 4, 2007

Vladimir Zhikhartsev and Nikki Kinne are highly respected water-color artists in their own right.
